THANKSGIVING!

EVERYBODY ought to be thankful over something—even if its only because "things are no worse." After all, perhaps our greatest blessings are the things most common-air, sunshine, water and occasionally a little of the good old Turk. There's another thing the ladies are not unmindful of, we hope. That's us. We certainly Reciprocate with a capital R.

THE STORY.

LAST SEASON we bought from one of New York's largest Importing Con Assion Houses (Mess. Weiller & Sons) at less than cost to import, their enormous lines of samples of the above goods, consigned to them by a number of German Manufacturers. We had no idea of the coormity of the lct until the drayman unloaded ten large German cases on our front pavement. It was so large a lot, in fact, that Mr. Bassett and a number of assistants worked many days and one entire night marking them and when we attempted to put them on sale they monopolized the entire store room, shutting off sales on other lines so that we had to withdraw them and put a few on sale at a time-Notwithstanding the tremendous sale last season, this season finds us with a great lot still on hand. Not wishing to continue this line and to make quick work, we offer on above date the entire lot at
